

Uimhir Thagarta Uathúil: CRK-C155-DEV21-128

Stádas: Submitted

Aighneacht:

Save Cork City The Economic Potential of Cork Submission to Draft Cork City Development Plan

Údar: Save Cork City Community Association CLG

Comhairliúchán:

Draft Cork City Development Plan 2022-2028

Dáta a cuireadh isteach: 01.10.2021 - 22:06

Litir Chumhdaigh

Thank you to all for the hard work in preparing the Development Plan in difficult times. The responsibility for a progressive plan lies with all of us and we hope to challenge constructively and have influenced to change the future of the City of Cork for the better. The plan reflects who we are as a city and a people in our time and we hope to be progressive city, that is caring and accepting of the change that is required for our best future economically and socially and in terms of our viability in a changing World.

Our submission document attached here, has been prepared in a process of collaboration by and for Save Cork City Community Association Limited T/A Save Cork City. Registered in Ireland No: 642820. Charity Registration No: 20205839

Special contribution by Dr Declan Jordan, Senior Lecturer in Economics, Spatial and Regional Economics Research Centre, Cork University Business School, UCC

The Submission is titled "Save Cork City The Economic Potential of Cork, Cork City Development Plan Consultation 2021"

Tuairimí:

Save Cork City The Economic Potential of Cork

Caibidil: Volume 1 - Written Statement» 2. Core Strategy

Ábhair: Long term planning

Every place must identify its strongest, most distinctive features and develop them or run the risk of being all things to all persons and nothing special to any.

Nobel Prize Laureate Economist Robert Merton Solo

Eochairfhocail: Long Term Economic flood climate
Planning, Potential, defences, built environment, Heritage, change

Ceangaltáin:

CRK-C155-DEV21-128-12851 - Submission to Cork City Development Plan Save Cork City Oct 2021.pdf

Teorainneacha Gafa ar an léarscáil: Níl