As a life-long resident, property owner and public servant in Cork, the development of the city is central issue in my life.

Tuairimí:

Cork, my city, my life

Caibidil: Volume 1 - Written Statement» 4. Transport and Mobility

Ábhair: Public
Pedestrians, Transport

Dog park in Ballincollig, more dog poo bins, safer street at night especially those pedestrianised, more lighting, more street patrols, more access for buggies and wheelchairs. More housing of course and more parks, creches and facilities for all ages'

Car parks to be underground or high rise, less surface parking. Free park and ride, more room for buggies on public transport, cars are not the enemy and are a necessity for people with mobility issues.

Absolute no to the city walls - i am wholly aligned with the Save Cork City campaign, whose submission I fully endorse.

Cork to be a Breastfeeding Friendly City.

Cork City Hall to be used as a cultural hub, with its role as the premier auditorium in the country to be prioritised - an artist advisory board to be set up to operate it, representing the musical and cultural interests of the city.

The Mayor to be directly elected and to lose the "Lord" title, which is no part of our modern democratic system.

People's assembly to be set up - similar to the one for the Constitution, so the views of Cork people can be heard and acted upon.
