Cork City Council

Cork City Casual Trading Bye-Laws 2022, made under The Casual Trading Act, 1995 as amended and all other enabling statutory powers

LONG TITLE: Cork City Council (hereinafter referred to as ‘The Council’) in exercise of the powers conferred on them by the Casual Trading Act 1995, as amended and all other enabling statutory powers hereby make the following Bye-Laws for the control and designation of casual trading in the administrative area of Cork City.

SHORT TITLE: These Bye-Laws may be cited as the Cork City Casual Trading Bye-Laws 2022.

AREA OF APPLICATION: These Bye-Laws apply to the functional area of Cork City Council.

COMMENCEMENT DATE: These Bye-Laws shall come into effect on (date to be added).

REVOCATION: “All previous Cork City Council/Cork Corporation Casual Trading Bye-Laws are hereby revoked as and from the commencement date of the (date to be added).”

INTERPRETATION: In these Bye-Laws the following words or phrases shall have the following meanings:

“the Act” Means the Casual Trading Act, 1995, as amended.

“Designated Area” Means an area designated in these Bye-Laws made under Section 6 of the Act as an area where Casual Trading may be carried out and as marked in red on the attached maps and listed in Part III hereto.

“Licence” Means a casual trading licence issued under Section 4 of the Casual Trading Act 1995 and for the time being in force.

“Casual Trading” Means selling goods at a place (including a public road) to which the public have access as of right or any other place that is a casual trading area as defined by the Act.

“Event Trading” Means Licenced casual trading at an event or events specified in the licence or at or in the immediate vicinity of the place where and on the day or days on which the event takes place.

“Trading Space or Bay” Means each individual area numbered on the schedule map attached hereto

“Licence Holder” Means a person to whom a licence has been issued or the licence holder’s servant or agent acting on the licence holder’s behalf.

“Authorised Officer” Means an employee of Cork City Council or other person appointed by Cork City Council, in writing, for the purposes of the Act.

1. CASUAL TRADING AREA:

- (i) The Council hereby designates those lands, more particularly delineated on the maps contained at Part III attached hereto, as Casual Trading Areas, for the purposes of the Act.
- (ii) Each Casual Trading Area will comprise a specific no of casual trading spaces / bays and each such space is individually identified and numbered as shown on the maps in Part III attached hereto. The location and number of individual stalls is provided for indicative purposes only and may be changed from time to time by Cork City Council.
- (iii) A Licence Holder shall engage in casual trading only within the space allocated to the licence holder in a designated casual trading area, which space shall be identified by means of a description in the licence holders' licence and delineated and numbered as shown on the maps in Part III. The location and number of any allocated stall may be changed from time to time by Cork City Council.
- (iv) Trading shall only take place at the times and on the days specified in Part II, attached hereto and as may be amended from time to time by Cork City Council.
- (v) A trading place may be temporarily or permanently relocated by Cork City Council to facilitate construction/development/maintenance of a roadway, footpath or other infrastructure or on adjoining sites or for other operational reasons. As appropriate, alternative trading places within a reasonable vicinity of the designated area may be assigned by the local authority to existing licence holders, subject to availability.

2. LICENCE:

- (i) A person(s) shall not engage in casual trading unless s/he, or the servant or agent of such persons as agreed in writing by the Council holds a Casual Trading Licence that is for the time being in force and the casual trading is in accordance with the Licence.
- (ii) A casual trading Licence shall only be issued by, and at the discretion of, Cork City Council.
- (iii) An applicant for a licence must pay the appropriate fee. The Schedule of fees for designated trading areas and event Licences, are made under the Casual Trading Act 1995 and set out at Part IV attached hereto.
- (iv) Each Licence shall indicate the type of goods that may be sold and only such goods as are shown on the licence, may be sold by the licence holder.
- (v) A Casual Trading Licence may not be exchanged, rented, sold or otherwise assigned by the holder. Licences are not transferable, but consideration may be given in exceptional circumstances (i.e. in the event of either death or long-term illness of the licence holder) to the transfer of a licence of a Casual Trading pitch to an agent/assistant/family member. Any assignment to a third party requires the prior written consent of the Council
- (vi) A Licence may be issued for a period of up to, but not exceeding 12 months.
- (vii) An application for a Licence must be made in the prescribed form, as set out and advertised by Cork City Council from time to time.

- (viii) A licence holder shall prominently display the number of the licence at the licence holders trading place in such a position as to be clearly visible and easily legible to members of the public at all times during trading hours.

3. EXEMPTIONS

Pursuant to Section 2 of the Act, casual trading does not include:-

- (I) Selling by auction (other than by Dutch auction) by the holder of a licence or permit for the time being in force under the Auctioneers and House Agents Acts, 1947 to 1973.
- (II) Selling to a person at the place where he resides or carries on business
- (III) Selling in respect of which it is shown by the seller –
  - a. That any profits therefrom are for use for charitable purposes or for other purposes from which no private profit is derived, and
  - b. That no remuneration, emolument, gain or profit will accrue to the seller or his servants or agents therefrom.
- (IV) Selling, during the period 1 May to 30 September in any year, by –
  - a. The grower (within the meaning assigned to that expression by the Casual Trading Act 1995 (section 2(3)) Regulations 2004, or
  - b. Subject to the condition specified in relation to this subparagraph by those Regulations being satisfied, a servant or agent of the grower,
  - c. of one or more of the following fruits and vegetables, namely –
    - i. Strawberries, raspberries, blueberries, gooseberries, blackberries, loganberries, tayberries and currants, And
    - ii. Potatoes having loose skins and which have been harvested prior to maturity.

4. TRADING SPACE/BAY:

- (i) A casual trading licence shall issue only in respect of a specific trading space or bay and any person engaging in Casual Trading shall do so only within the confines of the specific space or spaces to which the licence relates. The location and number of any allocated stall may be changed from time to time by Cork City Council.
- (ii) Each trading space / bay shall not exceed 3m in length.
- (iii) Stalls must be of the highest quality, properly maintained and presented and suitably equipped for the goods being sold. Stalls must not exceed 3m in length.
- (iv) Stalls used for selling/displaying goods must be approved by an Authorised Officer of Cork City Council and shall be removed at the end of each day's trading. Cork City Council may remove any stall found in a trading place outside of trading hours.
- (v) The issuing of licences for a trading place may be temporarily suspended by Cork City Council in order to facilitate construction/development/maintenance of a roadway, footpath or other infrastructure or on adjoining sites or for other operational reasons.

- (vi) An existing licence for a trading place may be temporarily or permanently suspended by Cork City Council to facilitate construction/development/maintenance of a roadway, footpath or other infrastructure or on adjoining sites or for other operational reasons. As appropriate, alternative trading places within a reasonable vicinity of the designated area may be assigned by the local authority to existing licence holders following consultation, subject to availability.

5. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF TRADING:

- (i) No goods other than those specified in the licence shall be sold.
- (ii) Traders selling food for human consumption shall comply in all respects with all relevant statutory obligations such as the Food Hygiene Regulations 1950 – 1989, the European Communities (Official Control of Foodstuffs) Regulations 1998 and the European Communities (Hygiene of Foodstuffs) Regulations 2000 in respect to the preparation and sale of foodstuffs.
- (iii) All food businesses must be registered with the Health Service Executive (HSE). A copy of the confirmation letter from the HSE is required to be submitted with the application.
- (iv) All people engaged in Casual Trading must indemnify Cork City Council and any person using the facility/service being provided, against any liability arising out of the use of the facility/service in question. In this regard, Public Liability Insurance of €6.5m, Employers Liability of €13 million, Product Liability (if applicable) of €6.5 million must be obtained and proof of same must be given by the applicant to Cork City Council before any licence is granted.
- (v) A licence holder shall be deemed to have forfeited their licence if they have not traded at the appointed pitch for more than 3 successive markets without reasonable explanation to Cork City Council.
- (vi) The licence holder must be present at all times where practicable. It is acceptable that the licence holder be absent during holiday periods or due to illness but this absence must be advised to the Property Section as soon as practically possible. A medical certificate is required for prolonged period of absence.
- (vii) A licence holder may nominate one agent to assist in the operation of a designated trading stall.
- (viii) A licence holder must at all times be able to produce a paper trail identifying the provenance of goods clearly identifying where stock came from.
- (ix) The sale of counterfeit items is strictly prohibited.
- (x) All products must comply with the provisions of the General Product Safety Directive 2009/95/EC as transposed into Irish law by S.I. No. 199/2004 and if required display a “CE” mark.
